

TAG Partner Receives Awards

Each year, the State of Tennessee recognizes an individual for their efforts in economic and community development. TAG Partner, Charles Hagood, recently received such awards from both the Southern Economic Development Council (SEDC) as well as the Tennessee Industrial Development Council (TIDC) for his leadership in promoting economic and community development in the State of Tennessee. Charles has assisted clients and has worked as a volunteer with perspective companies throughout the U.S. in the field of economic and industrial development.

Charles Hagood, TAG partner, is presented the Tennessee Industrial Development Council (TIDC) award by Marco Oliveri of Forward Sumner; Randy Brewer, President of TIDC; And Mike Kopp, Tennessee Asst. Commissioner of ECD.
